Still can’t find my institution: It’s probably there. Please look at the special cases, above, and try a shorter, more generic version of the name (“audu” instead of “Central Coast Audubon Society”, or “scout” instead of “Cub Pack 718”). If that doesn’t work, click the “Create new institution” button.

NATURAL RESERVE SYSTEM USE POLICIES

Please note if your application is approved, you will be required to abide by the following policies. Failure to comply may lead to denial or termination of reserve use.

- Rules and Regulations. Know and abide by University of California, Natural Reserve System, and reserve specific rules and regulations. Please note domestic animals or firearms are not allowed on any reserve and exceptions require written staff approval.
- Permits and Waivers. Provide copies of all required state and federal permits and sign a waiver agreement before entering the reserve. For some activities, proof of insurance may be needed.
- Publications. Provide two copies (paper or pdf) and full bibliographic citations of reports, theses, books, research papers, conference proceedings, or other publications (only one bound copy of a thesis or dissertation is required) within six months of publication. Include the reserve name as "key words" and acknowledge both the reserve and University of California in every manuscript. Please use the specified language provided in the NRS Acknowledgement Form.
- Submission of Bibliographic Data. For work utilizing wholly or in part an NRS reserve or its facilities, researchers will need to provide the NRS Information Management System (http://www.ucnrs.org) with the full bibliographic citation (whether for a report, thesis, book, research paper, conference proceedings, etc.) within six months of publication. Researchers are required to provide paper copies of all publications or an electronic version (PDF file) to the reserve manager.
- Data Registration. For data sets based on work at NRS sites, we are requesting that researchers fill out a form describing each data set. Please enter such metadata online at the NRS web site (http://www.ucnrs.org). Note that completed registration of datasets will fulfill data registry requirements for NSF and the Ecological Society of America. Failure to deposit both the bibliographic and metadata information as requested may lead to automatic denial of future Use Applications.

I have read and agree to abide by the use policies listed above and any reserve-specific policies appended to this application, and am aware that it is my responsibility to disseminate this information to all members of my party.
